HeritageHub

The premier collection of obituaries and death notices for in-depth genealogical research
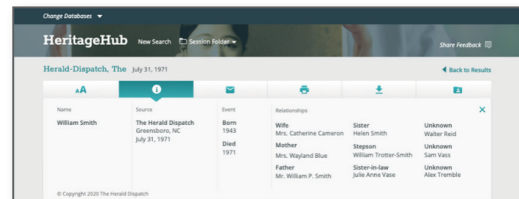

Quick Facts

Provides comprehensive coverage of obituaries and death notices from 1704 through today
Manually indexed obituaries enhance search accuracy for deeper family connections
Coverage from all 50 U.S. states and territories

Overview

HeritageHub provides access to hundreds of years of obituaries and death notices from thousands of newspapers across the United States. This one-of-a-kind collection helps patrons and family historians uncover new family members and understand family relationships on a deeper level than ever before. HeritageHub features:
Carefully indexed, name-rich obituaries

- Quick, accurate search results

- Details on multiple family members within each available obituary

- Easily identifiable relatives, relationships, and potentially unknown family connections

Results that are easy to view and refine

- Sort results by Best Match, Newest or Oldest Record

- Filter search results by Date, Location and Source

- Important dates and names prominently featured

Unique, data-rich sources

- Comprehensive coverage from all 50 U.S. states and territories

- Original obituary images from historical newspapers

- Hard-to-find digitized content from mid-to-late 1900s

- New records added daily

Your patrons can access HeritageHub remotely 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, on any device.

For more information on NewsBank solutions, call 800.762.8182, email inforequest@newsbank.com or visit newsbank.com